

"The role of CBA in government decision-making: international perspectives"

Organised by University of Milan (UNIMI), Society for Benefit Cost Analysis (SBCA)
and Centre for Industrial Studies (CSIL)

20 September 2017

AGENDA

- 9:00 - 9:15 Welcome address: Massimo Florio (University of Milan)
- 9:15 - 9:45 Key note presentation
- The growing use of Benefit-Cost Analysis in government decision making: insights from the United States. Lynn Karoly (Society for Benefit Cost Analysis)
- 9:45 – 10:45 International Perspective (Part I)
- Environmental Cost-Benefit Analysis and valuation of externalities stemming from chemicals in OECD Countries. Nils Axel Braathen (OECD's Environment Directorate)
  - Cost-Benefit Analysis in European Cohesion Policy. Witold Willak (DG Regional and Urban Policy)
  - JASPERS initiative. Davide Sartori (JASPERS – Networking and Competence Centre)
  - The economic appraisal of investment projects at the EIB. José Doramas Jorge-Calderon (European Investment Bank)
- 10:45 - 11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00 - 11:30 International Perspective (Part II)
- Lessons from using CBA in performance auditing. Lorenzo Pirelli (European Court of Auditors)
  - The role of CBAs in the evaluation of Connecting Europe Facility proposals. Julien Bollati (Innovation and Networks Executive Agency of the European Commission)
- 11:30 – 11:45 Discussion
- 11:45 - 13:00 Country Experience
- Some novelties in French CBA practice. Emile Quinet (Paris School of Economics, Ecole des Ponts-ParisTech)
  - Italy's reform of public investment appraisal: findings and perspectives on the role of CBA. Stefano Maiolo (Audit Unit of the Agency for Cohesion, Italian Government)
  - Experience of CBA framework's development for smaller investment projects in Lithuania. Egle Mikucioniene (Ministry of Finance) and Linas Jasiukevičius (Central Project Management Agency)
  - Verification process of the EU co-financed transport infrastructure projects in Poland. Dariusz Giziński (Polish Government - CEUTP)
  - CBA and transportation in Sweden. Henrik Andersson (Toulouse School of Economics)
- 13:00 - 13:15 Discussion
- 13:15 - 14:30 Lunch at Palazzo Greppi
- 14:30 - 15:15 Advances in CBA research and applications (Part I)
- Advances in CBA Research: Environment. Per-Olov Johansson (Stockholm School of Economics)
  - Economic performance & Risk evaluation: focus on US Congress & Homeland Security. Scott Farrow (UMBC and USC/CREATE)
  - Meta-analysis of the value of travel time: UK and Europe. Gerard de Jong (Significance- and Institute for Transport Studies, University of Leeds )
- 15:15 - 15:30 Discussion
- 15:30 – 15:45 Coffee break
- 15:45 - 16:30 Advances in CBA research and applications (Part II)
- The discreet wickedness of Energy Efficiency projects. Gianni Carbonaro (CSIL-Centre for Industrial Studies)
  - How are CBAs optimizing the value added by social interventions? Mariana Branco (Independent Consultant)
  - Beyond big science: CBA of research infrastructure. Massimo Florio (University of Milan) and Silvia Vignetti (CSIL- Centre for Industrial Studies)
- 16:30 - 16:45 Discussion
- 16:45 - 17:00 Concluding Remarks